A Unique View of the World

"Being self-employed is a scary way to make a living," she says. "Nothing about it is stable. I wouldn't recommend it to anyone, but I will never give it up. How many people can say that they really love their job? I can. I get to be creative. That is everything to me. I am truly blessed to be able to do this for a living."

Like so many of us genre lovers, Smart sees the world through her own unique set of genre-coloured glasses. In her case they're probably made of brocade.
